CALENDAR OF EVENTS

WHAT

Healing with Homeopathic & Integrative Medicine

...a series of four educational programs for the public presented by the Arizona Homeopathic and Integrative Medical Association (AHIMA)

WHEN

First Program of the series: Wednesday, November 1, 2006
7 p.m - 9 p.m.

WHERE

Rainstar University: 8370 E. Via de Ventura, Suite K-100, Scottsdale Free Parking

PROGRAM

Three presentations on different topics by licensed homeopathic & integrative doctors. Q&A follows each presentation. Speakers will be available after the program.

- Homotoxicology: Dilution is the Solution: Bruce Shelton MD, MD(H), North Phoenix
- 5 Steps to Prevent Losing Your Eyesight: Edward Kondrot MD, MD(H), Central Phoenix
- Sleep Apnea: The Noisy Silent Killer: Nick Meyer, DDS, Scottsdale

PURPOSE

To inform and educate Arizonans that homeopathic medicine is a vital, proven complementary or alternative healthcare choice to allopathic medicine. Homeopathic medicine is holistic, scientifically based, safe, effective and less expensive than allopathic medicine.

“Arizona Homeopathic and Integrative Medicine is the best kept secret in our community. Our unique field of medicine which is practiced only by MDs and DOs deals with seemingly incurable problems in a style that is both gentle and effective as well as being an economic alternative in light of today’s high cost of healthcare.” Dr. Bruce Shelton

WHO

The Arizona Homeopathic and Integrative Medical Association (AHIMA) is a 25-year-old state association for licensed homeopathic medical physicians in Arizona and in other states.

COST

$25 for one program; $75 for the program series. Tickets at the door.

UPCOMING

Next programs in series: February 7, 2007; April 4, 2007; June 6, 2007.
All programs at same time and location. Topics to be announced.
